

2023 Pennsylvania Hope Ride Against Cancer

Cyclist & hate cancer? The 11th annual Pennsylvania Hope Ride Against Cancer will take place on May 21st 2023 with the start/finish at the Donegal Insurance Training Center located in Marietta, Pa in the Susquehanna River Valley (12 miles west of Lancaster, PA). This charity ride raises funds for the mission of the American Cancer Society's support for people in cancer treatment, including the Hope Lodge in Cheltenham, PA. The ride offers several routes in the Amish countryside of Lancaster County: a Hearty 100 mile, Sublime 60 mile, Testy 30 mile and Family-friendly flat paved river trail distances of 7.5 to 22 miles. Since its inception, the ride has raised over $1.1 million to support the fight against Cancer.

Registration Fee $50, suggested fundraising minimum $150; (children under 15 with adult Reg fee $10, no fundraising).

Registration includes enrollment in the Hope Lodge Training Challenge (online tracking of a 1000+ mile route between numerous Hope Lodges from Boston to Charleston, SC).
