

White Clay Bicycle Club Policy

Protection of the Club's Mailing List

Established

November 2002

Purpose

Establish written policy addressing protection of WCBC mailing list. This policy is to protect its members from miscellaneous advertisements by restricting use of its list of members.

Policy

WCBC will not give out or sell its membership mailing list to other organizations, agencies, advertisers or other club members except under the following conditions:

- ? It is needed by an executive committee member to carry out club business,
- ? It is given to the Delaware Bicycle Council so that statewide cycling information can be given to the club members,
- ? It is voted to supply the list, as it would benefit the club and/or the majority of its members.

Whenever the mailing list is supplied, a statement saying the list cannot be redistributed, must be included.

DEFINITIONS

Club Business– Any recognized activity or function of the club that provides a benefit to the club.

Member or Membership - Any person who has paid dues or has met the club's membership requirements.
